Connect

Dear Prospective Exhibitor,

We invite you to join us at the Connecticut Academy of Family Physicians 2019 Annual Scientific Symposium. This conference, in its 67th year, is your best opportunity to interact with Connecticut's top Family Physicians.

This is a two day event. Last year, over 225 family physicians and residents plus an additional 100 medical students, physician assistants, nurses and office staff were in attendance.

Exhibitors in the past have included medical supply companies, pharmaceutical firms and companies with direct application to medical office practice such as computers, laboratories, financial counseling and estate planning services.

We greatly appreciate your participation and support. Your company and our members will learn and grow; but patients across the state of Connecticut are the ultimate benefactors as we work to improve their care.
